

Albany Creek Real Estate - Home

Independent agency Reinhardt & Slater is turning the local real estate industry upside down with a revolutionary approach to selling residential real estate. Servicing clients across Brisbane's North West from their base in Albany Creek, Reinhardt & Slater have dramatically raised the bar by combining new technologies, the latest thinking in marketing, and a special emphasis on property presentation.

Reinhardt & Slater's sleek new office in Centro Albany Creek bristles with plasma screen TVs, and digital video streams from its website. By all accounts their new approach is striking a chord with local home owners.
